INTERNATIONAL CLASS PROGRAM

WHAT IS PSYCHOLOGY?

Psychology is the scientific study of human mind and behavior. The goal of Psychology is to describe, explain, predict, and modify human behaviors using scientific methods. Psychology as a scientific study has existed for over 200 years. Psychology has remained a vital field of study over the years in this ever changing world.

WHY CHOOSE FACULTY OF PSYCHOLOGY UI?

UI established the first Faculty of Psychology in Indonesia in 1960. Faculty of Psychology UI is currently the benchmark of Psychology faculty in Indonesia. Faculty of Psychology encourages its students to take active participation both in classroom activities and in extracurricular activities to facilitate students' self-growth.

The graduates of Faculty of Psychology UI work in national and multinational organizations in a variety of field, such as human resources, market research, community empowerment, human relations, and education.

Faculty of Psychology UI has been collaborating with The University of Queensland, Australia since 2000 in running our International Class Program. This program has been awarded and showcased by the Australian Government as best-practice for international engagement.

INTERNATIONAL CLASS PROGRAM STRUCTURE

The International Class Bachelor Program in Faculty of Psychology UI is a joint-degree program. Upon successful completion, students will be awarded Sarjana Psikologi (S.Psi) and Bachelor of Arts in Psychology (B.A. in Psychology).

The study program can be completed in 4 years. Students will spend the first 2 years at UI in the first 2 years and continue their study at UQ in the remaining 2 years.

Students have to complete a total of 72 credits at UI (4 semesters) and a total of 32 units at UQ (4 semesters). In addition, students must also submit their own scientific article to UI in the last semester.

Students with excellent academic and non-academic performances are encouraged to apply for a scholarship (UQ Tuition Waiver). Scholarship Recipients who complete the study program on time will receive an award from the Faculty of Psychology UI.

INTERNATIONAL CLASS ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

There are two admission schemes for prospective students:
